INTRODUCTION

A No, Mum, can I go to the park with Tom?

B My train is late, I won't be in till 9.

C

D Dear Grandma, thank you for the lovely present.

E Please leave a message after the beep.

1 Use these words to describe what you can see in the pictures. What isn't shown? Find out what it is, then draw it and write a description.

e-mail answering machine telephone fax letter mobile phone computer

2 Match the sets of pictures.

1 Say what happened in pictures A-E in one sentence.

In the second picture a man on a train called his office on a mobile phone.

2 Now look at the people who received the messages (Pictures 1-5). Say what each person was doing when the message arrived.

The woman in the office was reading a letter when the phone rang.

3 Which ways of communicating do you think might be disappearing? Which ways are becoming more and more popular? Which ones do you sometimes, often or never use?

4 You will hear the people in two of the situations above on tape.

1 First read the dialogue on the next page and look at the notes in the table.

2 Listen to the tape and complete the table for two more conversations.
