Use of English

Read this!

We are going to enter a competition.

1 Read. Then write the long forms.

We're

The short form

A letter is missing. The apostrophe is in place of the letter.

We are

The long form

The missing letter is in its place. There are two words.

1 I'm I am 2 he's he is 3 doesn't does not

2 Read about writing and speaking.

When we write information we use the long form:

Lions are not bigger than zebras but they are faster.

When we speak we often use the short form:

Lions aren't bigger than zebras but they're faster.

When we write what someone said, we use the same form:

"Lions aren't bigger than zebras but they're faster," said Miss Carey.

3 Read about letters and emails.

When we write a letter to an older person, we use the long form:

Dear Grandma,

I am sending you some photos of our holiday. It was really great.

When you write an email to a friend you can use short forms. On page 23 of the Pupil's Book Sam wrote: Anna's really good at chess and I didn't play well.

4 Write the long forms. Sometimes more than one letter is missing.

1 can't cannot 2 I've got I have got 3 he's got he has got
