

Memorial Day

A. Reading

The last Monday of May is Memorial Day. It is a special holiday to honor soldiers who have died in military service to their country. Friends and relatives visit cemeteries to put flags, wreaths, or flowers on the graves of soldiers. Special Memorial Day services are held in some cities. Politicians give speeches and bands play patriotic music.

Memorial Day is also the start of the summer recreational season in America. Many families have picnics or backyard barbeques. Some people watch a car race called the Indianapolis 500. Most schools close for summer vacation around Memorial Day. Families start planning their summer vacations just before or after Memorial Day.
